

KENNETH BELDIN TO GRADUATE FROM U. OF C.

First Editor and Founder of Local High School Paper,
"The Explosion"

ENERGY WINS SUCCESS

After Graduation Will Return to Glendale and Begin
Business Career

Mrs. J. C. Beldin went north on the "owl" last night to visit friends in Berkeley and to be present when her son, Kenneth Beldin, graduates from the University of California. As a boy and youth, Kenneth attended the grammar and intermediate schools of Glendale and graduated from the Glendale Union high school in 1917, during which year he founded, as a private enterprise, and was the first editor of the High School Explosion, with a combined capital of energy, self-reliance and $12 in cash which he earned by working after school hours. He put the Explosion so firmly on its feet that it is yet one of the popular and permanent landmarks of the school. When his high school work was finished he made the student body a present of the paper together with the original $12 invested and with $50 cash profit, and many times that value in experience. He resolved to work his way through college, and thanks to his determination, energy and self-reliance, on May 11, he will make his bow to the world from the graduating rostrum of the University of California. But Kenneth has not forgotten the superior glories of Glendale and will return with his mother and engage in active business in his home city, among his many friends.

SIGNAL HONOR HAS BEEN CONFERRED ON JOS. SCOTT

Grand Ball Given in Honor of Visitors to State Convention of K. of C.

At the grand ball given to the visitors to the state convention of the Knights of Columbus in the ballroom of the Hotel Virginia in Long Beach last evening, Honorable Joseph Scott, orator, war worker and prominent member of the Knights of Columbus, was notified of a signal honor which has been conferred upon him. Rev. Father John W. Sullivan of San Francisco, state chaplain of the order, announced that Pope Benedict had conferred upon Mr. Scott the order of St. Gregory. This order of papal knighthood is rarely conferred, and only for signal service in the cause of country and humanity. In this instance it is bestowed in recognition of the work of the Knights of Columbus and Mr. Scott as their representative in the world war.

A Few More Moves

R. R. Carlson has moved from 239 Isabel, Mrs. Conway from 711 1/2 Orange Grove to 519 Myrtle, F. W. Whitney from 416 Lincoln to 1020 South Glendale, A. L. Maddy from 219 South Verdugo to 236 North Belmont, J. H. Badgett to 115 East Eulalia, Alice Goebel to 711 1/2 Orange Grove, W. R. Bland to 1137 East Elk. Some new houses are mighty near ready to be moved into, as indicated by light meters ordered, such as those of S. L. Smith at 1243 Valley View road, H. M. Anderson at 320 North Belmont, Howard A. Harrison at 221 West Lomita, F. F. Drexler at Harvard and Orange.

Bitter Fight Made By Friends of China

Object to President Harding's Nomination of Jacob Gould
Schurman, Former President of Cornell University, as Minister to China Because of Speeches

(By International News Service)
NEW YORK, May 10.—A bitter fight is to be made by American friends of China to prevent, if possible, the confirmation of President Harding's nomination of Jacob Gould Schurman, former president of Cornell University as minister to China. "The nomination of Schurman, because of his pro-Japanese speeches and stand, came as a bombshell to all true friends of China," today said Guy M. Walker, financier and authority on Chinese and eastern questions and a confidant of the Chinese government. "President Harding, I feel sure has been duped." "You will remember that Charles E. Hughes, secretary of state, formerly was a professor of political economy at Cornell University. He long has been a friend of Dr. Schurman. Dr.

SOCIETY LEADER NO FRIEND OF PROFITEERS

Mrs. John Deynzer of Evanston, Ill., prominent society leader, who has turned over a six-acre tract fronting on Lake Michigan for the purpose of erecting a "tent city" to house the victims of Chicago rent profiteers. Tents and portable houses may be erected on the site at the option of the tenant, and the rent will be just sufficient to cover the cost of electric lights, gas and general upkeep. The tenants must furnish their own tents or houses.

CHAUTAUQUA OPENS TOMORROW EVENING

The Glendale Chautauqua will open tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the Tabernacle.

The feature of tomorrow evening's session is a scientific lecture-entertainment, "The Magic of Electricity," by Burnell Ford, electrical scientist and inventor of note, a recognized figure in the scientific world. His lecture, demonstrating the wonders of electricity and many of the new inventions, is one of educational value and intense interest.

VETERANS PUT IN DIRTY HOSPITALS

(By International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 10.—Senator David I. Walsh of Massachusetts, has indicted the federal government's failure to provide adequate hospitals for ex-service men. Before the senate the representative in the upper house from Massachusetts charged that invalid veterans of the world war "are housed in so-called hospitals under conditions in which a self-respecting community would not tolerate its incapacitated criminals to live."

The Massachusetts senator also delivered himself of vitriolic comments upon the systems of insurance, compensation and vocational training provided for ex-service men by the government. Senator Allee Pomeroy of Ohio, demanded an immediate investigation by congress, and called for the court-martial of officers responsible for the conditions described by Senator Walsh.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS ORDERED TO PAY BILLS

(By International News Service)
NEW YORK, May 10.—Prince Nicholas W. Engeltcheff and Princess Denise, members of the former Russian nobility, who lived at the Waldorf-Astoria for the last five years, are the defendants in four cases for which judgments have been entered in the county clerk's office.

The judgments were rendered in favor of A. G. Kraft, garage owner, who sued for $2249.81 for the hire of automobiles which had been used by the prince in riding from his hotel to his office and by the princess for social calls.

The two members of the former Russian nobility continue to occupy their palatial suites at the Waldorf-Astoria.

JIMMIE GARTH LEADS TABERNACLE SONG SERVICE

Christian Endeavor

Otis Ironmonger was missed by the big audience at the Tabernacle Monday night. He had gone to Reedley to open the series of services to be conducted there by the John Brown party. His place in the service was ably filled by Jimmie Garth, who was formerly associated with Preacher Brown in evangelistic work, and who was greeted with hearty applause when introduced as Mr. Ironmonger's substitute. He led the choir and audience with spirit especially in the number written by J. H. Sammis for which he had composed the music and he also gave a good account of himself as an accompanist a little later at the piano. The solo of the evening was beautifully sung by Dr. Joseph Marple.

Rev. W. E. Edmonds announced that Sunday's freewill offering for Evangelist Brown was not as much as Glendale should have given, in his opinion, and that of local co-workers, and for that reason a special collection would be taken. Envelopes containing blank checks were circulated and then the "skillets" were passed.

Mr. Brown told something of the history of the Tabernacle and the fact that it is now the property of the State Christian Endeavor organization which will enlarge it to meet the

JANET E. MABRY QUEEN OF MAY

Fete Champetre on Acacia
Avenue School Grounds
Yesterday

Little Janet Elizabeth Mabry was crowned the queen of the May with appropriate ceremonies at a fete champetre held on the Acacia avenue school grounds yesterday in the presence of her devoted court and the admiring mothers and patrons of the school. Four little attendants preceded the queen to the throne, scattering rose leaves in her path.

Songs and poems and a dandelion drill were part of the event. Overall boys and sunbonnet babies did their "bit" in the entertainment program, which closed with a delightful May pole dance.

The parents enjoyed an al fresco luncheon with hot coffee served by the teachers, and for the children there was a treat of ice cream cones. After the luncheon the mothers held a short business meeting, at which P. T. A. officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. J. P. Alexander; vice president, Mrs. W. D. Clark; secretary, Mrs. Evans; treasurer, Miss Cornwell; historian, Mrs. J. P. Wilson.

FRANCE TO MOBILIZE BEES IN NEXT WAR

(By International News Service)

PARIS, May 10.—The next time France goes to war she's going to mobilize the bees.

It all came about in the senate's discussion of the expenditures for agricultural purposes. One senator remarked oratorically that the French people ought to get to work like the "busy bees." That reminded Senator Menier that if the government had been up to snuff it would have used a lot of honey when there was a big sugar shortage during the war. The minister of agriculture said it was a good idea and volunteered to give all necessary information about bee-raising to stay-at-home patriots in the next war.

GLENDAL AVENUE RESIDENTS TO MEET

Harry C. Levy of 811 South Glendale avenue, has called a meeting for Friday evening at 7:30, in the council room at the city hall, to which he is inviting all residents or owners of property on Glendale avenue or otherwise interested in that thoroughfare. He is calling attention to the fact that Glendale avenue is occupied by the Salt Lake railroad which uses it for freight traffic to the detriment of property abutting thereon with no attempt to provide passenger service. The object of the meeting is to see if something cannot be done to better conditions in that respect.

THE SCHOOL BOND ELECTION

Mr. Voter: Remember the School Bond Election, May 24, 1921, 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.; polling places, Central avenue school for those living north of Doran street; Cerritos avenue school for those living south of Windsor road; intermediate school for those living between these two streets. Amount of proposed issue, $199,000.

This amount is absolutely necessary to put our schools in good working condition and take care of the tremendous growth that Glendale has had in the last two years.

Remember that the cost to you is small. If these bonds are voted it will increase your tax rate 16 cents or less on the $100; that is to say, if you are the owner of a home worth $5000 assessed at 40 per cent of its value, the cost to you of these bonds for the first year would be $3.20.

The benefits far outweigh the cost. Do not fail to go to the polls and vote.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

(By International News Service)

ROME, May 10.—The Polish government today expressed regret to the Italian government over the killing and wounding of Italian troops in the Polish uprising in Upper Silesia. More than 100 Italian plebiscite troops in Upper Silesia have been killed and wounded in fighting with the Poles.

PARIS, May 10.—Occupation of the Ruhr district of Germany by allied troops may not be found necessary at the present time, according to opinion expressed in official circles today based upon reports from Berlin. It was announced by foreign office officials that advice from Berlin strengthened the impression that Germany would accept the indemnity ultimatum.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The marine strike appeared today to have settled down to test of strength between the workers and the shipowners. All efforts at mediation have gone on the rocks of the 15 per cent wage reduction. The marine workers refuse to accept this reduction and the ship owners and the United States shipping board refuse to make any concessions.

PARIS, May 10.—French newspapers today conspicuously display to an unconfirmed report cabled from Washington that American troops may participate in the occupation of the Ruhr if the allies take over that district of Germany.

Marcel Hatin, a political writer who is close to the French government, says that the allies will refuse any German request for delay in answering the ultimatum, pending the formation of a new German cabinet.

DUBLIN, May 10.—Miss Annie McSwiney, sister of the late Lord Mayor Terence McSwiney of Cork, and Lord Mayor O'Callaghan of Cork, will be Sinn Fein candidates for the South Ireland parliament in the forthcoming elections. It was reported from Cork today O'Callaghan is absent from the country at present.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—While the United States is again taking part in the deliberations of the allied statesmen on post-war problems, the participation of this country distinctly does the trick, the cabinet of American troops for any purposes which are not discernible from Washington.

DUBLIN, May 10.—Six hundred and seventy-five persons have been killed in Ireland since January 1, according to the following casualty list compiled here today:

Irish civilians and members of the Irish Republican army—killed, 441; wounded, 333.
British crown forces—killed, 234; wounded, 300.

LONDON, May 10.—The Polish government following out the wishes of the allies, is taking energetic steps for the restoration of peace in Upper Silesia, according to a Warsaw dispatch to the Daily Express today. Adolbert Koracz, the Polish commissioner in Upper Silesia, who proclaimed himself dictator of the province following the Polish uprising, has issued a proclamation at Buten, urging the population to return to work.

BERLIN, May 10.—All signs pointed to the acceptance of the allied indemnity ultimatum when the Reichstag met today. President Ebert had not yet succeeded in having a new ministry formed to take the place of the Fehrenbach-Simons cabinet, but it was reliably reported that compromise relations would result in the creation of a new government by midnight tonight.

BOSTON, Mass., May 10.—Trapped on the third floor of their home in North Cambridge early today as they frantically fought to escape the flames that roared up through the floor and their feet, four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Justine Trembley perished. Three other children were rescued, the first two by firemen and the last by the father.

MILAN, May 10.—More than 15 persons were killed and 100 wounded in fighting between the Fascisti and Socialists throughout Italy during the last 24 hours. According to advices received here from various parts of the country the political strife between the hostile political factions is becoming more bitter as the national elections approach. Both sides are carrying on violent campaigns that are not limited to oratory.

K. OF C. CONVENTION NOW IN SESSION AT LONG BEACH

Commander of Pacific Fleet and Prominent Members
View Street Parade

MANY FROM GLENDAL

Social Functions in Honor of Guests Are Arranged by Long Beach Council

The annual state convention of the Knights of Columbus is in progress in Long Beach.

The opening session was held at St. Anthony's church on Sunday morning, visiting knights attending Mass there in a body. In the afternoon the second and third degrees were conferred on a large class of candidates. The annual banquet of the organization took place at the Hotel Virginia on Sunday evening. Places were marked for 600 delegates and visiting knights.

A street parade was a feature of yesterday morning's program. It was reviewed by Admiral Rodman, commander of the Pacific fleet; others in the reviewing stand, which was located near the Hotel Virginia, were Long Beach commissioners and state officers of the Knights of Columbus.

Among the prominent members of the order throughout the state who are in attendance, are Joseph Scott, of Los Angeles; Frank M. Silva, of Napa; Paul J. McCormick, Los Angeles; Dr. John P. Slavish, of Oakland; James R. Keith, of San Francisco, and Thos. P. White, of Los Angeles.

"Joe" Scott is internationally known in Knights of Columbus affairs; Silva is a past state deputy; McCormick is a superior court judge and also a

G.U.H.S. GIRLS VOTE FOR MODIFIED DRESS

There Is Talk of Recount and
Also of Another Vote
Being Taken

Monday afternoon members of the Girls' League, which practically includes all the feminine portion of the student body of Glendale high, took a vote on the dress question and the policy to govern the school attire of students the coming year. Seniors were of course, excluded because they are soon leaving the school. The total vote cast numbered 388 and it is charged that many girls evaded their duty and did not vote at all. Out of this number of ballots 206 were for moderate dress and 182 for uniform dress. Following is a definition of these two forms of dress as accepted by the assembly before the vote was taken. There is some talk of a recount and also of another vote, but nothing has been absolutely determined as yet.

Modified Dress
1. No cosmetics except powder.
2. Shoes with low or military heel.
3. Plain stockings of lisle, wool, silk or cotton.

4. Silks, satin or very sheer material barred.
5. No rolled stockings.
6. Reasonable hair dress.

Uniform Dress
1. Consisting of the regular blue shirt and, after April 1 and November 1, white skirts may be worn.
2. White middie with blue detachable collar and cuffs.
3. Tie—black.
4. Plain stockings of lisle, silk, cotton or wool.
5. Shoes with low or military heels.
6. No cosmetics except powder.
7. No rolled stockings.

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 10.—Warren Wagner, wealthy oil operator, is dead here today and a charge of murder has been preferred against Fred J. Holmes, vice president of the Plant Oil Company. The shooting occurred last night and at the hospital where Wagner died later, he gasped out the statement "Holmes shot me through jealousy."

REVOLVER DUEL IN FORT WORTH

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 10. Gus Street, 32, is dying today with five bullets in his body and James G. Le Gros, 30, of El Paso, is probably fatally wounded, shot three times, as the result of a revolver duel last night.

The shooting threw pedestrians into a panic as the men drew their guns and began pumping the lead stream at each other.

Home Haworth, catcher for the Fort Worth baseball club was crossing the street as the duel opened and was struck in the left leg by a stray bullet. His condition is not serious.

Both men fell from the first shots, but lying in the street they continued firing until their revolvers were empty. They were taken to a hospital where both refused to reveal a motive for the shooting.

STEEL MAN WILLS HIS FORTUNE TO GIRL

Carroll McComas, noted Broadway comedian, who has been left the entire fortune of Howard J. Flannery, prominent Pittsburgh business and clubman, according to advices from Pittsburgh. Mr. Flannery died recently in a New York hotel. According to the Pittsburgh advices, he had named Miss McComas as executrix of his estate. His will, making Miss McComas sole beneficiary, is a brief one and was filed for probate in Pittsburgh. Mr. Flannery was a graduate of Yale and a noted athlete some years ago. He was frequently called to New York on matters of business, it is said, and it was on one of these trips that he was stricken with a fatal illness. Miss McComas, known to her friends as "Charley," is unusually versatile and has appeared in several Broadway successes.

DOG OWNERS MUST TAKE DUE NOTICE

Health Officer Discovers Case of Virulent Rabies and Orders Dogs Muzzled

The following communication is submitted for the information and immediate action of every reader of this paper who is the owner of a dog:

To the People of Glendale:
A case of rabies of a virulent type has developed within our city. In order that we may stop further progress of this malady, all owners of dogs are requested to muzzle same within the next 48 hours. Immediate action will be taken to cover the legal aspects of this case and compel the same to be done at once.

While we feel that there is nothing as yet serious in the situation, at the same time it is necessary that prompt action be taken to stamp out the disease.

We wish to further state that Los Angeles is taking steps somewhat similar on account of finding several cases within its limits and it is necessary that we heartily cooperate in every way that this may be effective.

J. E. ECKLES,
Health Officer of Glendale.

ORDER OF FORESTERS SESSION AT CATALINA

Two hundred and fifty officers from the various high courts of the Independent Order of Foresters attended a session of the order on Catalina island last Friday. Cities from Fresno to San Diego were represented.

The Foresters' vacation inn was dedicated with elaborate ceremonies; this was followed by a barbecue on the campus at sundown.

One of the chief features of the business session was the election of delegates to the supreme court, to be held in Toronto, Canada, August 23.

The chief social event was the banquet and ball at the Hotel St. Catherine.

C. OF C. DIRECTORS CONSIDER VARIOUS LOCAL MATTERS

Attorney James F. McBryde
Chairman of Entertainment Committee

PREPARE FOR C. E. MEET

Number of New Applicants for Membership—Fine
Dinner Served

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce met as usual this noon in the Union High School bungalow of the domestic science department and, as usual, enjoyed an exceedingly nice dinner. The girl cooks, to whom they were indebted for the spread, were: Lois Schuyler and Elaine Francis, who were assisted by Edith Schuyler, Margaret Maguire, Dorothy Danner, Ellen Foster and Marguerite Mandeville. The menu included flank steak with dressing and mashed potatoes, buttered asparagus, tomato salad, hot biscuits and marmalade, strawberry shortcake and coffee. Baskets of Cecil Brunner roses graced the long table and the sideboard.

At this meeting Jesse Smith submitted a report on the action taken at the White Inn last Saturday, with regard to a proposed military tournament to be held July 2, 3 and 4 for the purpose of raising a fund to provide the cities of Glendale and Burbank with memorial buildings and armories to house the patriotic orders of the two municipalities, and the directors voted to cooperate with the matter to the extent of their ability.

It was decided that the entertainment committee, of which James F. McBryde was made chairman at the last meeting, should number about 50, so that it could be divided into sub-committees for special duties. The particular work of this committee will be to assume whatever responsibilities in the way of work that may fall upon the chamber in connection with any big affairs that may take place in Glendale or adjacent territory, such as the great Christian Endeavor convention that is coming to our city the latter part of June, the Elks' convention and the military tournament in July.

Present as guests of the directorate were Howard L. Brown, formerly president of the State Christian Endeavor Society and now chairman of the local Christian Endeavor committee; A. L. Baird, chairman of finance; James Cooper, treasurer, and Mr. Kitterman. They were there to report the aid and indorsement their committee had received from Chambers of Commerce in other cities.

After considerable discussion the board voted a donation of $200.

New applications for membership on which the directors voted were: George B. Dart, Myrtle B. Knapp, A. J. Vanderhoff, Charles A. Hawkins of the Rollin' Pin Bakery, William Hunter of the Glendale Paint and Paper Company, James F. Fischer of the Fischer Variety Store, R. F. Adams of the Superior Printing Company.

KEAUMOKU E. LEWIS TO SING TENOR HERE

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery announces that she has been so fortunate as to secure Keaumoku E. Lewis for two beautiful tenor solos for the garden fete to be held next Saturday at the corner of Central avenue and Lexington drive.

Mr. Lewis will sing Grieg's "I Love Thee" and Massenet's "Elegie."

SON BORN TO MR. AND MRS. ANDREWS

A new baby, who may be called Jimmie, arrived Sunday night to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Andrews of 228 North Orange street. He and his mother are at the Glendale Sanitarium and doing well.

Apparently there was some miscalculation in the theory that a return to private ownership would settle all railroad problems.

Heavy Damage and Loss of Life in Kansas

Livestock Losses Are Reported and Crops Have Been Destroyed Over Vast Area—Telephone Wires
Down and Main Roads Under Water

(By International News Service)
TOPEKA, Kan., May 10.—Much of the lowlands of Northeastern Kansas are under water today and reports of heavy damage and loss of life are coming in as the result of torrential rains last night accompanied at Mayette by a tornado which swept over the Pottawatomie Indian reservation.

Mrs. George N. Haas was drowned in Banner creek, near Holton, when the rushing waters swept her buggy off a bridge. Scott Ross, a farmer, was drowned at another crossing of the creek.

At Little river, in Rice county, a stretch of the Santa Fe track was washed out on both sides of the town, marooning a Hutchinson Chamber of Commerce booster train.

Six inches of rain fell at Carbondale and Osage City and at Manhattan fell of sufficient size to break windows and automobile windshields.

Heavy losses of livestock are reported, while crops have been destroyed over vast areas. Many telephone wires were down today and main roads were under water. The rivers are rising, the Kaw river, being at the 12-foot stage at this city, while the Marias des Cygnes, at Ottawa is at the 19-foot stage, three feet below flood stage and still rising.

MARSHALL PLAN FOR STATE DEVELOPMENT

Crittenden Bill Providing for Comprehensive Plan for Utilization of Water

SACRAMENTO, May 10.—The California state irrigation association, which is backing the Marshall plan for state development and control of the water resources of California, today issued the following statement:

With the passage by the legislature of the Crittenden bill providing for the determination of a comprehensive plan for state utilization of water resources, the first engagement has been won in the battle to save for the people the most valuable natural endowment in the possession of any state of the union. In addition to procuring a state appropriation for the above investigation, this association, formed last July and bitterly opposed by entrenched interests every inch of the way, has written into the law of California the following declaration:

"It is hereby declared that the people of the state of California have a paramount interest in the use of all waters of the state, and that the state of California shall determine what waters of the state, surface and underground, can be converted to public use, or controlled for public protection."

The bill is specific and binding in imposing on the state department of engineering the obligation to determine, not a policy, as urged by the agents of special interests, but a definite, practicable plan. The sections covering this are as follows:

"Sec. 3.—It shall be the duty of the department of engineering to determine the maximum amount of water which can be delivered to the maximum area of land, the maximum control of flood waters, the maximum storage of waters, and all possible and practicable uses for such waters in the state of California."

"Sec. 4.—It shall be the duty of the department of engineering to determine a comprehensive plan to accomplish the above purpose and to estimate the cost of constructing dams, canals, reservoirs or other works necessary in carrying out this plan, and to report the result of his investigations, with recommendations, not later than the legislative session of 1923."

In writing and procuring the passage of the above measure, this association has more than justified its existence, but this is just the beginning of the fight. Departmental investigations have a way of seeping off into the sand, unless followed closely by alert and well organized public opinion. The California state irrigation association is going to stay on the job. It has the endorsement and co-operation of the league of California municipalities, the California real estate association and numerous public bodies in every section of the state. At a state convention of the association, to be held in Sacramento, May 20, plans will be formulated for driving straight ahead to the stage of action—for it is action that the water and power users of California want. The farmers of California need relief and need it badly, and there is a vast amount of practicable construction which can be undertaken without waiting for the drafting of the final plan. This association intends to press its initial advantage to the immediate purpose of getting something done, with a minimum of delay and red tape. It intends to mobilize all the enlightened public opinion of the state to this end—to get water on land and to develop cheap power without leaving the job for the next generation.

In addition to procuring the passage of the Crittenden bill, the California state irrigation association laid before the people of California the most momentous issue of years in the demand that the state file on possible reservoir sites, to keep them out of the grasp of monopoly. A resolution calling upon the governor to make these filings, under the authorization of the national power appropriation law, was placed before the assembly by the league of California municipalities, co-operating with this association. This resolution was adopted and the issue is now being widely commented upon by the state press as imperatively demanding official attention.

There are four legislators, among others, who particularly deserve the thanks of the people of California for their loyalty and zeal in fighting for water conservation during the last session of the legislature. They are Assemblyman Bradford S. Crittenden, of Tracy, and Charles W. Cleary, of Lindsay, and Senators L. L. Dennett, of Modesto, and Frank S. Boggs, of Stockton. These men were always on the job, and it is largely to them that the people are indebted for the passage of the Marshall Plan bill and the adoption of the resolution for state filing on reservoir sites.

IMMENSE THROGS ATTEND THE TABERNACLE MEETINGS

Hundreds of Audience Unable to Find Seats at Sunday Night's Service, Despite Seating Accommodations for 2500—Male Quartet From Pasadena

EVANGELIST TALKS ON "WEIGHING THE CITY"

Describes Luxurious Life of Belshazzar and Handwriting on the Wall—Exhorted Young People to Keep Character—Dwells Upon Sins of the Age

At Saturday night's meeting the evangelist's theme was "Memory," and he took for his text two words, "Son, Remember," from the story of the rich man and Lazarus in the 16th chapter of Luke's gospel. He said: "Memory starts in earliest childhood and writes a complete record of your life. Some love to turn back to memory's pages and read the beautiful things of their past life. Others wish they could blot it out altogether. Blessed is the man or woman who has lived on so high a plane that memory brings only pleasant thoughts."

"Paul's injunction to children, 'Obey your parents in the Lord,' seems to have been changed in the present day to 'parents, obey your children.' Lawlessness almost seems to be the rule in the modern home. Parents face an awful responsibility in this respect. You decide this side of the heaven or hell. Memory is present in heaven, whether you spend eternity in heaven or hell. Memory is present in heaven, and the book will be opened at the judgment day. When you stand at the judgment bar and God says 'son remember,' the whole of your life will be unrolled before you."

Sunday Morning's Meeting

Sunday morning's theme might be characterized as "The Church First," and the text was Matthew 16-18: "On this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Among other things said by the evangelist:

"The church is as old as the human family. Some people have a great veneration for old things and love to trace their family back for generations. Such should have a great respect for the church on this ground. The church is not only the oldest, but the largest institution in the world. It is hard to get out from under its shadow for universal is its dominion and when you do get out you find that life is not safe there."

"The church is the most permanent thing in the world, the one institution that will stand forever. It cannot fail because it is founded on a rock and Jesus declared that the gates of hell could not prevail against it. Its foundation was laid by the bleeding hands of Christ."

Afternoon Service for Men

A great parade of men and boys which was a prelude to the afternoon service, more than fulfilled the expectations of its promoters, as more than 600 were lined up in front of the high school at 2:30 to take part. Headed by a delegation from the Glendale Company, California National Guard, led by Captain Watson and Lieutenant Grist, with Old Glory proudly borne in front and followed by members of the G. A. R., then by men and boys from the various churches, the line of march was taken up west on Harvard, then north on Brand to Wilson, south on Brand to Harvard, then went on Harvard to the Tabernacle with a volunteer band making sweet music.

The Tabernacle was almost completely filled when the service opened at 3 o'clock. The subject was "Chickens Come Home to Roost—Like Curses." The text was the same as the evangelist used in his sermon on "Influence." "Be not deceived. God is not mocked. Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." The talk also was quite similar.

"Sowing and reaping are life's seed-time for eternity. It is not true that God loves you if you are good and hates you if you are bad. God loves the vilest sinner and is always ready to receive him if repentant. He gave the ten commandments as a wall to one. The sins therein enumerated are not wrong because God says so. God says they are wrong because they are wrong."

Great stress was laid upon the desecration of God's Holy Day.

Gaming was dealt with most severely as being a violation of the command "Thou shalt not steal," and the assertion was made that nearly everything we eat and wear is manipulated in price by stock exchange gamblers and corrupt middlemen.

Sunday Evening

At the Tabernacle Sunday night enough people unable to get seats were crowding the doorways and making a background for the rear seats to constitute a good audience in many of the Glendale churches. When the numbers standing he kindly volunteered to count them and later reported 200 with 200 in the choir and every possible seat occupied in the closely packed benches that are supposed to accommodate 2500, making all told an audience of 2800.

The special attraction was a male quartet from the Pasadena University, that greatly pleased the audience in the two numbers sung.

The preacher announced that his theme would be "Weighing the City," and his text the 27th verse of the 5th chapter of the Book of Daniel, "Thou art weighed in the balances and found wanting."

He described the luxurious life of son of Belshazzar and the handwriting upon the wall which when interpreted by Daniel filled him with terror. Like most people when in extremity he thought of his mother and sent for her. That is what usually happens, the preacher said, when a boy or girl gets into trouble and discovers that the old foggy notions of mother which they have disregarded are not so old foggy after all. At this point he exhorted young people saying: "Character is all you have. You should keep character as the apple of your eye."

STATE CONVENTION NOW IN SESSION

The initial session of the three-day annual state convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy, was held at Hotel Virginia today.

Mrs. W. M. Monroe, president of the Joe Wheeler Chapter, together with other members of the Long Beach Chapter, welcomed the guests at the hotel. Addresses of welcome to the daughters of Dixie were made by Mayor W. T. Lisenby, for the city; Mrs. May White, president of Long Beach Elks Club, for the women's club of the city; James F. Collins, for the American Legion.

Mrs. George P. Cabannis of San Francisco and Mrs. W. Bartlett of Los Angeles responded to these greetings. The convention will open for business tomorrow morning at 9:30. Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Douglas, state president, will preside.

A reception to the state president and officers tomorrow evening will be followed by a grand ball.

The social program for Thursday includes a luncheon to visiting delegates and officers, and sightseeing trips by auto and boat.

Mrs. McLaughlin White of 519 Raleigh, is among the southern people now residents of Glendale who are attending the sessions; she will remain for a week's sojourn at Hotel Virginia after the close of the convention.

MAY PERMITS NOW PAST $100,000 MARK

The second week in May opened very auspiciously in the building line. W. L. Truit's was the first permit taken out, and it was for a 5-room residence in his new Grand View district subdivision at 1221 Winchester avenue. The next was by J. F. Stanford for brick store room at 133-135 South Central avenue, to be occupied by the Federal Grocery Company, with one of its Rock Bottom stores. C. E. Damerell took out a permit for a garage at 123 North Orange, $300; W. E. Cleveland one for a 5-room residence and garage at 417 West Lomita, $3800; Mrs. Clara F. Brown for a 4-room residence at 315 Hawthorne, $2700. This brings the month's total to $108,200 and the year's thus far to $1,315,541.

OPEN-AIR CONCERT BY MUSIC SECTION

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, 415 South Central avenue, represented Mrs. Marlenee yesterday, at a luncheon in the Broadway tea room, where 25 representatives of various musical organizations met to make reports and hold a conference on "Music Week."

The report from Glendale made by Mrs. Montgomery elicited much praise. The Madrigal Club is preparing numbers for a concert, the High School orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Dora Gibson, will give an open-air concert, and the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club is arranging for a musical entertainment for Thornycroft boys.

The Junior and Juvenile auxiliaries of the Glendale Music Club will give programs also. It is hoped to arrange a community concert. Los Angeles is planning one to be held in Pershing square, when 5000 voices will take part. While Glendale could not hope for so large a body of singers, she could, no doubt, enlist the interest of enough singers to make a large chorus.

Los Angeles is manifesting much interest in Music Week, not only among its musical organizations, but also among the people at large. At yesterday's luncheon there were representatives of the Rotary Club, the Hollywood Bowl, and the newspapers, who are doing much to promote Music Week.

CONFERENCE MEETS AT LONG BEACH

The southern conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of California and the conference of Lutheran Women's Missionary societies are in session at the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Long Beach for a series of meetings covering today and tomorrow.

Dr. R. W. Mottern of Glendale, is the presiding officer; Rev. N. Harter of Pasadena, is secretary and treasurer.

The pastor of the Glendale Lutheran church, Dr. H. C. Funk, is in attendance; Paul A. Hoffman is a delegate representing the high school, and Mrs. H. C. Funk represents the women's missionary societies.

FRANCE WANTS GOODWILL OF U. S.

By NEWTON C. PARKE
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

PARIS, May 10.—The most significant movement for the moment in world politics is the campaign launched under the inspiration of the French foreign office for closer relations between France and the United States.

The French government has shown a readiness to risk antagonizing Japan in its eagerness to get on sound and more friendly relations with the new Harding administration at Washington. An influential section of the French press, supported by a strong group in parliament, would go even farther and take a chance at incurring some ill-feeling in England by supporting the American views on the Mesopotamia oil question.

Most surprising is the fact that friends of ex-Premier Clemenceau, who urged above all things the necessity of a close Anglo-French alliance, are taking the lead in proclaiming the justice of America's claims in the Mesopotamian oil fields. Clemenceau himself retired from active participation in l'Homme Libre, his newspaper organ, several months ago, when Andre Tardieu and a group of other Clemenceautes took over control.

The new director of l'Homme Libre, Eugene Lautier, averages at least two leading signed articles a week, urging the importance of close cooperation between France and the United States and advising the government to support Washington's contentions of the mandate question.

Lautier Attacks Lloyd George. Lautier has taken a very strong position in favor of the United States in the oil discussion. He first launched a vitriolic attack on Lloyd George in a review of the oil negotiations. A month later he returned to the same theme, referring to the "serious mistake" committed at San Remo when England and France concluded the oil agreement, and upholding the American position that her rights as one of the victors in the world war could not be overlooked in her absence from allied conferences.

"In this affair and in all others France should show herself agreeable to the United States and inspire her confidence," wrote Lautier. "President Harding has affirmed America's interests in Europe with wisdom and with moderation. The blood she spilled on our battlefields gives America the right to speak."

"Pertinax" Alone is Silent. Le Populaire, socialist organ, which opposes the majority of the French press or nearly every question under the sun, joins with l'Homme Libre, Figaro, the Matin, the Petit Journal and other influential papers in working for Franco-American cooperation.

Le Populaire reviews the history of the close connection Senator Henry Berenger has with the Royal Dutch, the Anglo-Dutch oil company. Berenger was the French representative in the negotiations that sealed England's hold on the Mesopotamian oil fields.

Of the prominent newspapers only the Echo de Paris is abstaining from this governmental and press movement in favor of America. "Pertinax," political editor of the Echo de Paris, sometimes lends grudging support, but more often advises the United States not to meddle in France's tangled relations with Germany.

Taxes and Prohibition Take Fun Out of Life

Sense of Humor Sleeping, if Not Dead, Famous Raconteur Laments—George Ade Only Worthy Successor of Mark Twain and Artemus Ward, He Says

By MARJORIE REX

For International News Service
NEW YORK, May 6.—Chauncey Mitchell Depew, who celebrated his 87th birthday recently, complains of the world. He says there is no fun in it; that good jokes are a thing of the past, and that humor, if not in the unburied-dead class, is, at least, afflicted with sleeping sickness.

Two things the distinguished statesman and raconteur blames for the that they laughed at whatever he said. "I wish I could remember some of his funny sayings, but that was a long time ago and I can't think of them right now."

"Lincoln loved Ward's type of humor and often quoted him. There was another popular writer in those years that Lincoln admired. A Confederate postmaster at a cross roads sent articles to the papers under the name of 'Orphus C. Kerr,' meaning that he was an 'office seeker.' I don't know that they laughed at whatever he said.

PERSONAL MENTION

George E. Jefferies of 330 Salem street left the last of last week for his old home in Newark, O. His departure was hurried somewhat by a telegram that his aging father was very ill. Mr. Jefferies and wife had planned to return to their old home state sometime in June. As his parents and nine brothers and sisters all live close to each other, there will be quite a family reunion when he gets there.

The General Richard Gridley Chapter, D. A. R., of Glendale, have already secured over $250 through their plan, "a mile of pennies." This has been donated to the Maternity Hospital in Los Angeles. The chapter has also donated 1000 books to a school for Mexicans.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Endicott of 308 North Central avenue were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Dixon of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Baldwin and daughter, Lura, and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Leaton, were weekend guests of Mr. Miller of Fullerton. Mr. Miller is an uncle of Mr. Leaton.

Miss Jacobs, vice-president of the Girls' Friendly Society, will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the society at St. Mark's church tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Angelica and son, Mrs. Charles Parks, Mrs. Lowe and son, Smith Lowe, and Miss Lottie Skilton, were dinner guests last evening of Mrs. E. A. Augustin of 712 North Maryland avenue.

Miss Grace Osborne of 406 West Wilson avenue, will have as her guest tomorrow and Thursday, Miss Mary J. Hall, who is connected with the George Junior Republic schools at Chino.

Miss Margaret Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Brown of 416 North Kenwood street, who attended the May festival at Pomona College, was the weekend guest of her cousin, Miss Margaret Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Braly of 505 North Brand boulevard were dinner guests on Sunday evening of Dr. and Mrs. Herman Janss of Gramercy place, Los Angeles. Tonight they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Braly of Gramercy place.

Mrs. R. L. McCourt of 336 North Central avenue returned Sunday evening from a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dewey of Hanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones of 310 Hawthorne street entertained on Sunday, Mrs. Dora Turley of Ocean Park, who has been in Glendale visiting friends.

past state deputy; White is master of the fourth degree of Southern California, and both Slavish and Keith are past state deputies.

Officers of the state council are: David F. Supple, San Francisco, state deputy; Charles F. Lenz, Los Angeles, state secretary; F. E. Michel, Sacramento, state treasurer; W. Joseph Ford, Los Angeles, state advocate; Rev. John Sullivan, San Francisco, state chaplain; Dr. John F. Slavish, past deputy.

Twenty-eight delegates arrived in Long Beach Saturday morning on board the S. S. Yale, just returned from her second trip to San Francisco. The delegation was headed by John Collins and Leo Lemon, state K. of C. officers.

Visiting knights were entertained on board ships of the Pacific fleet yesterday afternoon, going by special Pacific Electric cars to San Pedro, where they were met at the wharf by launches from the ships.

A grand ball at the Hotel Virginia was the entertainment for last evening.

Of the speakers scheduled for the convention sessions, one of the most popular will be Right Reverend John J. Cantwell, bishop of Monterey and Los Angeles, who hurried from a church dedication at which he officiated in Needles, this morning to arrive in Long Beach in time for his address this afternoon.

The third number of the Knight Errant, a monthly bulletin published by the Long Beach council, was distributed to convention visitors and others throughout the city yesterday. Louis I. Lefebvre, grand knight of the Long Beach council, is editor of the magazine.

The sessions of the convention will come to a close tomorrow evening. T. L. Wright and H. M. Dill are delegates from the Glendale council, and many of the 100 or more Knights of Columbus of Glendale are attending a part of the business sessions and the social functions arranged by the Long Beach council in honor of their guests.

Glendaleans present at the ball last evening were Messrs. and Mmes. H. M. Doll, J. G. Monahan, J. Chappuis, T. L. Wright, M. J. Brennan, H. V. Henry, P. J. Perry, Mrs. Marleau, Miss Jodar, Miss Catherine Marleau, Messrs. Marcellus Doll and Jodar.

needs of its great June convention. He suggested inasmuch as this cooperation had reduced the cost of the special services, that collections be taken at services today which would be turned over to the local Christian Endeavor entertainment committee to constitute a fund to meet the expenses of its preparatory work.

Rev. Cole made announcements concerning the Chautauqua course which is being backed by a local committee of guarantors, and Mr. Brown indorsed the action of the guarantors in securing such a series for Glendale, saying that while he expected everybody to go to prayer meetings Wednesday and to church and Sunday school on Sunday, he expected them also to patronize this course of wholesome amusement.

The evangelist took as his theme Paul's declaration, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." Speaking of the many hours at a stretch upon which Paul preached to and pleaded with the people, Mr. Brown said: "There is no greater evidence of the shallowness of this age in spiritual things than the insistent demand that we run the church by the clock. One of the first questions asked about the average preacher is: 'Is he long winded?' We want preachers who give us sermonettes."

Paying a glowing tribute to the manliness of his subject both as Saul of Tarsus and as Paul, the preacher sought to enforce the lessons drawn from his life, his conversion, his decision, his admonitions. Said he:

"Let me say to a lot of you young converts your future is involved at this point, and your destiny as Christians will be largely determined by the stand you take. As you value the worth of your soul, when you take your stand for God, do not be half-hearted about it. Go all the way as Paul did. As you value your new life do not compromise. If you are going to heaven you must get with the crowd that is going that way. I thank God the Christian life is a life of activity and progress. We are taught the Christian life is the life of a soldier. The trouble in California is that so many soldiers in the army of the Lord think they ought to go on the retired list."

"FORBIDDEN FRUIT" AT PALACE GRAND

Cecil B. De Mille's Paramount production of "Forbidden Fruit," is one of the most massive and beautiful pictures shown anywhere this season. It will be the feature picture at the Palace Grand for the last time today. The story is a dramatic one and many interesting scenes are finely presented. The episode of Cinderella, which is necessary to the development of the plot, has been sumptuously staged and will attract general attention. Beauty is the keynote of the production throughout.

The cast includes well known screen artists such as Agnes Ayres, Clarence Burton, Theodore Roberts, Kathryn Williams and Theodore Kosloff.

COULD MAKE GROUP OF WOODEN INDIANS SING

That's What They Say About Walter Jenkins, Song Leader.

That community singing is "good medicine" for every community is the belief of Walter Jenkins, prominent community song leader who comes to Chautauqua on the fifth day. He says, "When we sing together our moods draw closer together. We feel alike; we think in terms of the group."

Someone has said that "Walter Jenkins could make a group of wooden Indians sing." He certainly possesses the uncanny ability of putting every audience in good humor. During 1917 and 1918 he was Northwest Song Leader for the Army and Navy Camps and since that time has been Community Song Leader of Portland, Oregon. During his program Mr. Jenkins will also present a few baritone solos.

PREDICTS DRY NEW YORK IN SIX WEEKS

(By International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 10.—Police Commissioner Richard E. Enright, of New York, has declared that New York will be dry in six weeks. Arrests are being made at the rate of 1,000 a week and forty men, under former Inspector Thomas McDonald, will take the warpath at once.

The fight to rid New York of John Barleycorn in compliance with Federal and State prohibition laws has been launched with a vigor heretofore unprecedented in New York City.

Revenue agents are cooperating with Commissioner Enright's forces in the eradication of booze. The city magistrates are hearing the cases with a swiftness in line with the rate of arrests. Raids are being conducted nightly, especially upon the many inns along the Hudson on the road to Yonkers.

MOTOR OWNERS SAVED MANY MILLIONS

The defeat of the Ream Bill, the Sample Bill, and the Morris Bill in the recent session of the State Legislature, has saved the motorists of California approximately eleven millions of dollars during the next two years in unjust and unnecessary taxation. These bills were beaten by reason of the united and vigorous efforts of the Automobile Club of Southern California, the California State Automobile Association and the friends and adherents of these two organizations. Both clubs are receiving the heartiest congratulations from motorists all over the State on their fight against the discriminatory and heavy burdens which these measures would have imposed on the public, in addition to the already weighty load of some $16,000,000 which they are bound to pay during the next two years, all of which is by law devoted to the construction and maintenance of our highways.

The Automobile Club of Southern California, as Secretary Standish L. Mitchell points out, is justly proud of its share in the defeat of these uncalled for and penalizing measures. If it were not for the advent of the automobile, the majority of our improved highways in the State would be mere trails, or cowpaths. Southern California, particularly, continued Mr. Mitchell, "has been largely built up by the factors of the automobile and the automobile trucks. More residents, more investment, more population and more prosperity has been brought to the southern portion of the State through these means than by any other single medium."

"The overloading of trucks," said Mr. Mitchell, "has always been, and in future will be even more staunchly opposed by the Automobile Club of Southern California. Its warning signs to owners and drivers as to overloading are found on the roads and highways, together with its thousands of directing signs, all over the Southern Counties, and the upbuilding and preservation of the highways is one of the prime objects of the club."

As Mr. Mitchell also pointed out, the club has spent many thousands in aiding to extend, construct and guard the welfare of the highways, and is in perfect accord with the plan to use all fees derived from the motoring public on the highways. But it has also, he added, "a duty to its members and to all motor owners, to protect them against any extortionate taxation, which had the proposed laws passed, would have been little short of a fine for owning and operating automobile vehicles. In this duty it has hewed to a straight and true line, and will continue to do so, fearing no criticism, and inviting the most rigid scrutiny of its motives and actions."

MESSAGE OF OPTIMISM

A message of optimism concerning business and industrial conditions throughout the country is given by Evangeline Booth, commander of The Salvation Army in the United States, following a 10,000-mile trip to the Pacific Coast.

"Many persons believe the peak of unemployment has been reached," she said, "and I feel that from now on there will be a slow but steadily increasing demand for labor, skilled and unskilled, and before the season's crops are in the granaries, there will be plenty of work for all honest workmen."

Commander Booth believes that the poor are not getting poorer, by any means, but rather the contrary. She said: "I found no great dire distress, due to unemployment. Savings have been a great aid in this recent economic depression. Relief agencies are busy, of course, but this has not been the most serious unemployment crisis by any means."

With conditions rapidly becoming normal, The Salvation Army must turn its undivided attention to its routine work of maintaining its institutional work and ministering to the emergencies which continually arise in California. For this work The Army during the week of May 9th to 16th, will appeal to the public for the necessary financial aid.

AN EXCELLENT SOLUTION

Bill Haywood, king of the syndicalists, turns up in Russia as head of a soviet bureau when the officers look around to find him so that he may serve the sentence Judge Landis imposed upon him. Without telling anyone about what he proposed doing Bill just walked out of the country. Haywood furnishes an excellent solution of the problem of what to do with revolutionists of his type. Let them out on bail, straw or other kind, and get them an invitation from Lenin or Trotsky to hike across the water. Russia is the logical place for men who think like Haywood and his tribe of I. W. W.'s. There is no room for them in this country save in the prisons, and they are getting clogged up a little. That means that Russia is a much safer place for them personally and as they can have no hope of inducing or frightened enough men to follow them here they will be able to find congenial company and congenial tasks among the professional proletarians there. Haywood has shown the way to deal with the problem, which is convict them, accept whatever bail they offer and ostentatiously open the door into Russia.

Some men do not know just how big the town is until they start out to borrow some money.

The hotter a man likes the liquor the more he insists he can take it or let it alone.

PAT AND PERT

Thomas A. Daly, the Irish poet, said at a luncheon in Philadelphia:

"Whatever you think of the Irish question, you've got to admit that the Irish can always come back at you with—er—a pat answer."

"Once at a dinner in Dublin, I sat beside a very pretty Irish actress. She said that her sex was more religious than ours, but I said in answer:

"Oh, you only go to church to see what the women have got on."

"Well," said the pretty actress, "you men only go to the theater to see what we haven't got on."—Detroit Free Press.

FOOD OR MEDICINE?

"What's them?" he inquired as his wife was preparing for the party. "Those are olives." "What are they good for?" "Good to eat." "What else? You can't tell me anything with a taste like that oughtn't to cure something."

BY RIGHT OF CONQUEST

"What right have you to wear that medal for bravery in combat?" asked the officer. "Best right in the world, sir. I licked the fellow it was issued to."

A Suggestion for Betterment

Editor Glendale Press: A suggestion for the betterment of our city costs nothing to give and nothing to consider, and by chance may be of some value. There being no harm in it, I take the privilege of offering this one, which may be accepted or discarded, whichever is seen fit by our Board of Trustees.

Many strangers in Glendale have been heard to remark concerning the large electric "blvd." sign at the intersection of Brand blvd., and San Fernando road. Since the recent removal of the red arrow pointing north to the center of Glendale, the general impression is gained by outsiders that the business section on San Fernando Road comprises the City of Glendale.

While it is very true that we are proud of this section of our city, and it has proven itself a credit to our name, we must not overlook the fact that we are spreading a false impression of the size, the location, the modernness and the beauty of Glendale to the outside world. This will cause us to lose many expectant settlers in Southern California.

The nationally advertised fact that the latest United States government census credits Glendale with a net population gain of 33% during the last decade is not given very much weight by a sight of South Glendale alone. The entire city, including Brand boulevard and Broadway business district, must be seen to realize the true extent of our enormous growth. It is just and fair that our city be properly shown to critical strangers.

A suggestion attempting to be fair to all sections of the city, would be to place the "Glendale" electric sign directly over the east side of Brand boulevard facing south. In this position it would give the direct impression of the location of Glendale, at the same time removing all objection by South Glendale. The open highway of San Fernando road leads directly through that section and carries heavy traffic to that business block. The sign would be in plain view of the Southern Pacific tracks, as well as San Fernando road and the new Glendale boulevard and would add greatly to the volume of traffic passing through Glendale proper.

All large and successful business concerns display their best goods first. Why not put Glendale on the same basis as these concerns and put the "best side of the apple to the customer."

JOHN T. JENKINS.

VALLEY CHAMBERS FOR TOURNAMENT

Messrs. Rowley and Pomeroy Feel That Valley Will Back Enterprise

Mr. Pomeroy, secretary of the chamber of commerce of Burbank and L. T. Rowley of this city, on behalf of the Military tournament, Monday, made quite a tour of the San Fernando valley, visiting chambers of commerce in the different cities, soliciting their cooperation in the big enterprise. Everywhere they were received with the greatest cordiality, and each secretary agreed to bring the matter immediately before his organization for endorsement. The price of the valley also promised support of the project. The two representatives feel much cheered as a result of their first excursion and say that they feel assured that the San Fernando valley is a unit for the tournament.

ADVICE TO THE AMBITIOUS

Jones—"I want to do something big and clean before I die." Bones—"Wash an elephant."

TABERNACLE CUSTODIAN

A most important cog in the perfectly working machinery of the Brown evangelistic company is the Tabernacle custodian and that man is J. F. Gasser, who, by the way, is a full-fledged Glendelian now, enthusiastic and loyal to his adopted city, having bought a residence property at 315 North Louise and settled down with wife, son and daughter, to enjoy the delights of living in beautiful Glendale. Mr. Gasser is a sort of special providence after all the little details of management, smoothing out all difficulties and keeping in perfect working order. The most difficult problem presented to him receives an instant "Yes, I'll see to that. Give yourself no further concern."

Mr. Gasser was a minister of the Gospel in Trenton, Ill., for four years, but had to give up his chosen profession on account of ill health. He dearly loved farming and was rejoiced when John Brown offered him the position of agricultural director of his great school for poor boys and girls, just outside the little city of Siloam Springs, Ark., which nestles at the foot of the beautiful Ozarks in the northwestern part of the state. For a year he enjoyed the outdoor life on this 300-acre farm and then he was called to accompany John Brown on his evangelistic tour. He will sever his connection with the company soon and remain in Glendale. He has been a salesman of auto accessories in his time, as well as farmer, and he hopes to secure a position in one of these lines so he can remain in this beautiful spot, for the benefit of his own and his family's health.

GRAVE AND GAY

MAKE YOURSELVES AT HOME

Harkins had lived in his new home but a few weeks, and scarcely knew his neighbors by sight at the time of his fire. On rushing out of the front door he found two of them already on the scene.

"I say," Harkins cried excitedly, "Very sorry," explained the man, "but I have a wooden leg and can't run."

The other neighbor pressed forward. "I say," said Harkins, turning to his new ally, "while I am getting the things out of the house, run over to the corner of the street and shout 'Fire'."

"I'm suffering from laryngitis," said the other neighbor in a stage whisper. "There was not a moment to spare, but Harkins found time to turn to them and say politely: "Suppose both of you go into the house and bring out easy-chairs and sit down here and enjoy the blaze."

TELL IT TO THE RADICAL

The small boy stood at the garden gate and howled. A passing old lady paused beside him.

"What's the matter, little man?" she asked in a kindly voice. "Gooh!" wailed the youngster. "Pa and ma won't take me to the movies tonight."

"But don't make such a noise," said the dame admonishingly. "Do they ever take you when you cry like that?"

"Sometimes they do an'—an' sometimes they don't," bellowed the boy. "But it ain't no trouble to yell."

THE OBLIGING YOUNG MAN

A young man, becoming engaged, was anxious to present his intended with a ring appropriately inscribed. Being at a loss what to have engraved upon it, he asked his father for advice.

"Well," said he, "put: 'When this you see, remember me.'"

A few days later the young woman was surprised to receive a beautiful ring with this inscription: "When this you see, remember father."

HAD OTHER KNOWLEDGE

"Everybody seems to agree that we can't be merry in these hard times," said Boggs.

"Ah," replied his friend, "they ought to hear the story of the steward in the storm who met a passenger rushing along with his hand to his mouth. 'You can't be sick here, sir,' he cried. 'Oh, I can't, can't I?' cried the passenger."

NAMING HIS OWN TERMS

Speaking of the after-effects of the convention of the State Federation of Music Clubs, in Los Angeles last week, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, its first vice-president, said she thinks it has done more to make the people of Southern California realize the importance of American music than anything that has transpired in a long time.

Correcting the statements made by some of the newspapers in recording the credits due this city, Mrs. Jones stated that Glendale enrolled in the list of federated bodies, six musical organizations in this city, viz., the Glendale Music Club and its auxiliary, the Junior and Juvenile Clubs; the Madrigal Club, the high school orchestra and the high school glee club.

The opening day was like a Glendale day, Mrs. Jones said, so many good reports were read from this city, and so many delegates from here were present. It was the only city that reported a main music club with auxiliary and it has done much to put Glendale on the map as a musical center.

Mrs. Jones also says that California has the largest individual membership in the National Federation of Music Clubs of any state in the union, and is considered the best organized state. This record has gone abroad and eastern states are sending for bulletins and plans of organization.

The four state prize winners are to be sent to the national convention at Des Moines, to compete there for national honors. As California's one representative, Miss Ruth Hutchinson won at the last biennial, it would seem that our state has an excellent chance this time with four representatives.

Max Green, who sold his residence property at 14 South Jackson street not long ago, reports that the new owner, Mr. McQueen, who comes to Glendale from Salt Lake City, will take possession about the 20th. The Greens have leased property at 127 South Orange and expect to build later on. Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Jackson, parents of Mrs. Green, who have been making their home with her, have just moved to their new home on East Elk near Cedar.

Mr. Green was well satisfied with the start he made Monday on the week's business, his record showing three Oakland cars sold that day.

THE APPEAL ELOQUENT

It was war time. The intrepid general was rallying his wavering troops. "Women," she cried, "will you give way to manish fears?"

A muffled murmur of indecision ran through the ranks. "Shall it be said that we are clothed in male armor?" shrieked the general. "The murmur became a mumble. 'Will you, fiercely demanded the general, 'show the white feather in general, 'show the white feather in a season when feathers are not worn?'"

The effect was electrical. And, "Never!" roared the soldiers. They once forming into battle array, they once more hurled themselves upon the enemy.

"I taught school among my own people in the Tennessee mountains for several years after I graduated from college," a Southern lecturer says, as reported by a subscriber to the Outlook.

"Funny things happened. Hearing a boy say, 'I ain't gwine thar,' I said to him, 'That's no way to talk. Listen: 'I am not going there; you are not going there; he is not going there; we are not going there; they are not going there; they are not going there.' Do you get the idea? 'Yessur, I gits it all right. They ain't nobody gwine.'"

THE PATRIOT

I profiteered throughout the war. I profiteered for two years more. And when the people asked me why I kept my prices up so high, I told them that I had to make a profit for my country's sake.

And nowadays when prices fall, I tell the people one and all that everyone who buys and buys. Will help the nation stabilize. Be prices low, be prices high. None loves his country more than I.

FIGURES NEVER LIE

"What are the chances of my recovering, doctor?"

"One hundred per cent. Medical records show that nine out of every ten die of the disease you have. Yours is the tenth case I've treated. Others all died. You're bound to get well. Statistics are statistics."

SHOULD HAVE PURSUED

Otis—"Why did you transfer your account from that up-state bank where you used to do business?"

Chester—"Well, I'll tell you. One day I was riding with the president in his silver, and the cashier passed us in a twin six."

THERE ARE OTHERS

Hokus—"Is it true that bleaching hair causes insanity?"

Pokus—"Well, I know many a fellow who was simply crazy over a blonde."

There will be "Tabernacle Echoes" at the First Methodist Church tomorrow evening with two great meetings in progress. The church prayer meeting crowd will meet in the Sunday School room, while the young people with ages ranging from 14 years to 35 years will meet in the auditorium. These meetings will strike hard for 45 minutes and then close in time for attendance at the Chautauqua. It is earnestly requested that the whole church and "our friends" gather in these great prayer meetings. New converts and those who are to join by letter should be there. Especially are the young people urged to come to this, their own meeting. The services will begin at 7:00 (not 7:30, as usual), and close at 7:45.

A personal physician.

Naval and military personal aides.

A social secretary for the mistress leader of the country.

A daily newspaper, prepared for him alone.

A complete retinue—the best private secretary he can find, a man to keep track of his appointments, another to open his mail, one whose special duty is to keep "cranks" from getting to the President, a barber, a disbursing officer to keep the white house accounts straight.

In addition to these things, paid for by the people, the new President falls heir to many courtesies, such as:

LETTER MAILED IN 1889 ARRIVES NOW

(By International News Service)

BOSTON, May 10.—A letter mailed from Boston to the state house 31 years ago has arrived here.

It was addressed to "David Pulsifer, esq., State House, Boston," and the postal date, still very legible, was "Boston, Oct. 5, 1889, 7:45 p. m."

It bore a light-green colored two-cent stamp, with a likeness of Washington, an issue long ago abandoned.

It had evidently reached Seattle in its 31-year trip, as it bore the mailing date, "Seattle, Wash., Terminal Station, April 13, 1921."

Postmaster Morris Jackson at the state house doesn't know, and never has heard of, "David Pulsifer, esq.," so he turned the letter over to the Boston postal authorities, to whose care it was entrusted 31 years ago.

METHOD IN IT

An English mother who'd had her baby christened William Oliver Robert Kenneth, was asked why she gave the child so many names.

"Because," she replied, "the initials spell 'work,' so perhaps when the baby grows up he'll take to it better than his father's."

A private room at the railway station in the national capital.

A private box at the theater, specially decorated in his honor.

A specially reserved pew in whatever church he prefers.

Membership in the most exclusive clubs.

Idealizing reproduction of his features by portrait painters and sculptors.

Services of dentists, tailors, etc., as much as he may be willing to accept.

Gifts of all sorts—books, jewelry, prize turkeys and hogs and pumpkins, bed quilts and what not.

Arranging for Military Celebration July 2, 3, 4

Benefit of Patriotic Orders of Glendale and Burbank—Urged by Delegates Assembled for Conference—Permanent Organization Effected at Luncheon

A big affair, but not in the sense of numbers in attendance, was the luncheon at the White Inn Saturday noon. The big part was the project they had come together to consider, a military celebration, to be held at some point midway between Glendale and Burbank, July 2, 3 and 4, for the purpose of raising money to build an armory or memorial hall for each city to house its patriotic orders—the American Legion post, G. A. R. post, Spanish-American War Veterans, Red Cross, Boy Scouts, and the organizations allied with these, such as the Women's Auxiliary, American Legion; W. R. C., Daughters of Veterans, Sons of Veterans, D. A. R., etc.

As outlined at this luncheon a huge task was presented but it did not appear to dismay the men assembled there, because they are men who prefer big things to little things, and to whom a great demand is a stimulus instead of a discouragement.

Three cities, Los Angeles, Glendale and Burbank, were represented, and there were delegates from all the orders named above. Speaking for the Los Angeles group interested in the project were Major Kirk and Major Cotton. The Burbank delegation of enthusiasts included Hugh R. Pomeroy, secretary, Charles L. Monroe and Dr. J. T. Mauer, of the Burbank Chamber of Commerce; W. P. Coffman, Alice M. Coffman and E. H. Wilson, of the Burbank Commercial Club; Capt. Wells of the Burbank National Guard company; Charles Carrigan of the Burbank schools. Representing Glendale organizations were Dr. W. N. Nichols, post commander, and Gordon Clayton, Dr. Kaemmerling and Jesse Flower, of Post No. 127, American Legion. Acting for the National Guard company were Capt. T. D. Watson and Lieut. N. C. Hayhurst. A. W. Scudder was the delegate from N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R. From the Glendale Chamber of Commerce came James N. Rhoades, secretary, and L. T. Rowley, T. W. Watson, Jesse E. Smith, first vice-president; V. M. Hollister, second vice-president. From the Glendale chapter of the Red Cross, its chairman, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett.

Major Kirk, head of organization work for the National Guard in Southern California, was made chairman of the meeting, and N. C. Hayhurst, its secretary.

When Burbank delegates were called upon for an expression, Mr. Pomeroy, secretary of the Burbank Chamber of Commerce, stated that his organization had approved the plan and stood ready to support the project to the limit. Mr. Coffman of the Burbank Commercial Club said that his club was in sympathy with the idea and ready to aid in carrying it through provided they could have the assurance that nearby cities such as Pasadena, Hollywood, Los Angeles, etc., would help in the gigantic undertaking. Mr. Greene of the Burbank Pathfinder also agreed to do all in his power to further the matter.

T. W. Watson and Secretary Rhoades were spokesmen for the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, and stated they had no power to act, but had been appointed to investigate and report back to the chamber.

The next business was permanent organization, Major Kirk being elected chairman, and Mr. Hayhurst, secretary. On motion of T. W. Watson, an executive committee with unrestricted powers was then elected. There was some division of opinion as to the number to be named on this committee, and several changes in the original motion covering this point were made, the amendment of Major Cotton finally prevailing, that the committee be made up of three from Burbank, three from Glendale and two from Los Angeles. A recess was taken that the different groups might select candidates, and when again called to order the following were elected: Major Kirk of Los Angeles, chairman; Dr. Kaemmerling, representing Glendale post, American Legion; Capt. T. D. Watson, Glendale National Guard; L. T. Rowley, Glendale Chamber of Commerce; Capt. Ray Wells, Burbank National Guard; Hugh R. Pomeroy, Burbank Chamber of Commerce; W. P. Coffman, Burbank Commercial Club; Col. Copp of Los Angeles.

TENTATIVE FESTIVAL PROGRAM. A meeting of this committee was held Sunday evening at which a tentative program for the festival was adopted, which included the following events:

Saturday, July 2—A country fair, with exhibits of cattle, swine, goats, horses, poultry, rabbits, dogs, bees and wild stock show; an industrial show; exhibits of farm implements, tractors, trucks, and an automobile show; exhibits of household appliances, food products, agricultural products, an entertainment; balloon ascensions and parachute drops; trotting races, burro races, buggy races and slow mule races.

Sunday—Sacred concert with large chorus, under the leadership of Prof. Kershoff and religious pageant in the evening.

Monday, July 4—Athletic carnival, military exhibit, war exhibit and a military review.

On motion of L. T. Rowley, Captain T. D. Watson of this city and W. P. Coffman of Burbank were appointed a sub-committee to raise $2000 for the immediate use of the committee.

The members present also voted for a grounds committee consisting of five members, to be headed by the chairman and to include two men from Burbank and two from Glendale. The committee on cooperation included L. T. Rowley, chairman, Dr. Kaemmerling, and H. R. Pomeroy.

On the publicity committee were Capt. T. D. Watson of Glendale and Mr. Greene of Burbank.

The name of the festival was also the subject of discussion, the committee agreeing on "The Southern California Military Tournament."

Captain Wells called the committee to order and presided, and Lieut. N. C. Hayhurst took the minutes.

The next meeting of the committee will take place at the Burbank Commercial Club, Wednesday noon.

NEW INTEREST IN MAJOR LEAGUE RACES

NEW YORK, May 10.—Fandom took new interest in the major league races today.

With eastern American and western National league teams invading the rival halves of their respective circuits the first big intersectional series of the season got under way.

What the winning eastern team will be able to show against the strongest teams west of the Alleghenies is a matter of great interest.

Coming clashes between the Giants and Dodgers against the Pirates and Cubs, who are sharing the first division with them will be closely watched by the National league fans.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 10.—

"If I get to feeling much better before they rig up the gym traps I guess I'll have to put myself in the hoosegow. I'm an Atlantic City cop now, you know, and I'm ready to be tried already."

Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight was speaking. He had just come in from a 10-mile hike on the road this morning and he looked as good as he said he felt.

Dempsey will get a chance to work off some of the excess steam this week. The gymnasium at Alport, his training camp, will be ready for him tomorrow or Thursday. He will start light work immediately. Since coming here the champion has done little except road work. He does not go into the surf. He believes the water stiffens his muscles and he thinks swimming brings into play the wrong set of muscles for his purpose so he will do little surf bathing.

ANNUAL MEETING OF FEDERATION P.-T. A.

The regular annual meeting of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations will be held tomorrow (Wednesday), at the Intermediate school at 2:15 p. m., for the election of officers, adoption of changes in the by-laws, and such other business as may come before the organization. Every member is urged to be present.

PEARL WHITE AT GLENDALE THEATER

Pearl White appears at the Glendale Theater today for the first time in the William Fox production, "The Thief," based on Henri Bernstein's play that was a big success in New York, London and Paris.

Miss White shows greater histrionic ability with every new picture. "The Thief" is not only pleasing and thrilling from a story standpoint, but it is beautiful photographically and scenically. "The Thief" is a story of a woman whose husband hasn't sufficient money to dress her as well as the women of their circle are dressed. Other women scorn this wife in consequence and men snub her. But she finds a way to get beautiful gowns—and then women admire her and men try to make love to her. The climax is a superb one, with Miss White at her best. Her supporting cast does excellent work.

A Rolin comedy, "The Goblins," completes this program, which is also featured for tomorrow at the Glendale Theater.

Making a Kick a Boost

"Well, sir," said an old gentleman residing in the suburbs of Dublin, "what are you doing around here again? I thought that delicate hint I gave you with my boot just as you left the front door last night would give you to understand that I don't like you and won't have you coming here."

"It did," said the young man, who was after the daughter, as a look of mingled pain and admiration came over his face; "but I thought I should like to ask you—"

"Ask what?"

"If you wouldn't like to join our football club."

ABSOLUTELY CLEAN

Mother—"Now Bobbie, was it you who picked all the white meat off this chicken?"

Bobbie—"Well, mother, to make a clean breast of it, I did."

A Family Agreement

"We made a solemn compact on the day we were married that in all minor affairs my wife's word should be law, while I should decide all major ones."

"Has the scheme worked?"

"Yes, I think I may say so. No major affairs happen to have cropped up."

The Other Card

By MARY ANN FORD

[The characters and situations described in this story are suggested by incidents coming under the writer's notice in the daily routine of life.]

Birt Ellis gave one the distinct impression of being closely connected with a haberdashery. He belonged to the type which revives the dormant advertising ability of some men and quickens it into activity for others. You know the kind, which makes one want to slip an immense billposter behind an immaculate figure and carry it far up the mountain side to where a straight blaze of sunlight intensifies and enlarges the charm in the latest cut of the season's styles.

At least, that's the impression he gave to disinterested strangers. Now there are others; take, for instance, his male followers, they preferred to see a model in a store and the women, bless their feminine hearts! would have raised an uproarious howl at the cruelty and injustice of anyone robbing Ellis of their sweet companionship.

And another class, not inferior in number and easily recognized as sweethearts and husbands, arrived at the divine conclusion that the proper location for Ellis was far down at the fishy bottom of a deep sea, or maybe advertising the newest thing in caskets, in fact, several of them had endeavored to help him do it, and only by careful maneuvering had he refused their assistance.

To properly state the extent of Ellis' charms, would do well to call him the keener thing on Broadway, which is a true statement, and a magnificent allowance, permitting you to place him upon the idol's pedestal of your conception.

Now, one isn't common if one holds an exalted position, and if one isn't common it necessarily follows that they will be loved, envied and hated. All this happened to Birt Ellis, and he gloried in it, with the satisfaction of a saint, and enjoyed it and forgot it by a marvelous speed sufficiently strong to shake the advocates of the power of will.

One Sunday afternoon Ellis guided his Rolls-Royce along a crowded boulevard. He wasn't in store for her, he didn't swear. He enjoyed frequent glances of envy too much for that. He wasn't lonesome, for beside him sat a dainty but thoroughly satisfying preventative; for as long a period as six months she'd occupied an esteemed position in his estimation, which spoke well for her qualifications, for Ellis' preventative was different, generally last more than three months.

Satisfaction and contentment and the generally good things of life can easily surround a man and modify his views. But they can't keep him driving a Rolls-Royce for more than two miles behind a straight line of tin lizzies. It's against human nature.

Ellis watched and waited, and at the first opportunity swung into the center of the street. Evidently an imp of mischief, disguised as honor and dig-

HORSE SHOE AND TOURIST CLUB NEWS

Walt Nicles, old-time print paper salesman, with headquarters at 1414 Annapolis, and known among the trade as "Old Nick," now guardian angel of the horseshoe, croquet and checker grounds, contributes the following:

The Glendale Club is still in the ring after moving three times in less than three years on account of the great building program in Glendale. They have had some thoughts of building a ground on wheels so they could make a quick move! They are now nicely fixed just west of the last location, but are still on Broadway.

There is now a pitching ground with five alleys and plenty of free seats and everybody is welcome; and an abundance of room on the roll book if anyone wishes to join the 125 or more on the list. The several teams are not breaking any records, but are doing good work. They hope to be in shape soon to stage some good contests with our neighboring clubs. A number of our new pitchers are coming along strong—Beardsley, Kenyon, Young, Brumby, Jones, Witherspoon, and others, with the old-timers, Denney, Pettit, Hall, Holeman, Keim, Hutchinson, Archer, Schindler, Higley, and so on, are all improving with the 2½-pound shoe, after using one of 4 pounds for years. When you haven't anything else to do, give us a visit.

The club has two new croquet courts in fine shape and contemplates one more. It is needed, and by the way, there are some good ball knockers in the membership. Take Volney E. Philp, the president of the club. Volney can put the ball through the arch every time (sometimes). Wallace Robinson is some crackerjack, too. H. F. Anderson, the long shot man is a hummer. Bohannon, with a short arm stroke, is liable to finish before the rest start. Head, the deliberate knocker (I mean ball knocker), has them all guessing. McCormack's not slow. Sam Dick of Pennsylvania, gives them a rest when his turn comes to play. The heavy knocker is McClain.

One of the all-around players is Thomas Archer, past 84 years old, and what is remarkable, he does not use glasses. Fearn and McPhail are among the most successful players.

There are some 40 members playing croquet. Then comes the game that taxes your brain—checkers, and we have 10 or 12 good players, such as T. H. Porter, Charles Templeton, Lou Gingrich, McElwee, Warren, C. C. Stevenson, Herman, Clough, Everington, and others. They certainly do enjoy the old-time game of checkers. In a few days there will be a special space fixed up for these brain workers.

Saturday afternoon, May 28, we hope to stage a five-team contest of 50 games among the home players.

COLONEL HUNT CONFESSES

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Although he had been warned of the "dangerous character" of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, and advised to have him handcuffed if he left the prison, Col. John E. Hunt, retired, admitted today before the congressional committee which is investigating the Blacker's escape, that he allowed Bergdoll to go unshackled when he left to look for the "pot of gold." Colonel Hunt was the commandant of the disciplinary barracks where Bergdoll was confined.

Dr. Jessie Russell Enjoying Washington

Delegates to National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Association Received at White House and Attends Sessions of Senate and House

Dr. Jessie A. Russell, who has been attending the convention of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations in Washington, D. C., seems to have had a very fine time hobnobbing with official Washington. A letter which she wrote to a friend in Glendale states that the convention delegates were received by President and Mrs. Harding with an elaborate reception at which the whole main floor of the White House was thrown open, and unlimited time given to the greeting of the visitors, who were taken to view the many interesting objects that constitute the furnishings of the drawing rooms, and also the private galleries and gardens.

Dr. Russell was the luncheon guest of Mrs. Fall, wife of the secretary of the interior, and later in turn entertained in her honor with a luncheon. She was also the guest of a group of wives of eastern senators at the senate session when the Knox peace resolution was debated and finally voted upon after 7:30 o'clock in the evening. In commenting on this session, the doctor writes that irrespective of the topic of discussion, the speakers included the most brilliant group of orators in any debate of recent years—Lodge, Hitchcock, Borah, Sharp, Harrison, Reed, and many others. She was also present when the

MORE LOT SALES ON NORTH BRAND

J. C. Barnett has traded his property on Pioneer drive for three lots in the neighborhood of La Ramada. Messrs. Burton and Chandler report that nine more lots have been sold in that locality through the instrumentality of their firm. C. D. Shattuck has purchased two lots on Louise and Maryland. This makes a total of 19 lots that have changed hands since La Ramada was purchased by the Misses Baldwin.

WHEAT CROP IN NEBRASKA GOOD

C. C. Cooper, president of the First National bank of this city, who has just returned from a trip to the middle west, reports that prospects are good for an excellent wheat crop in Nebraska and the only other factor in prosperity among the farmers of that state is through organization in the handling and marketing of that and other products. Mr. Cooper expresses pleasure in his return to Southern California and Glendale in particular, and says he has learned to appreciate anew the large measure of prosperity this part of the world is enjoying. He found the middle money market which is loosening up in the east and from which California has practically been free.
